TIMES

BUT NOT

PASSED . . .

FORGOTTEN

IN APPRECIATION

On May 10, 1983, the Ellendale School Board regretfully accepted the resignation of Mr. John Longtin, as he takes the position of high school principal in Vermillion, S.D. The Redbird Staff dedicates this annual to him in appreciation of his seven years here as our principal. He was a friend to many of us and will always be fondly remembered as the class of '83's "foster father". We wish him the very best in the future.

Cristina came to Ellendale at the age of 17 from Bilboa, Spain.

She was our foreign exchange student under the Youth for Understanding program. Some of her highlights during the year were Confirmation, Graduation, participating in music contest, and being a member of a wedding party.

Cristina plans to enroll in a university when she gets back to Spain, and fulfill her dream of becoming a doctor. She left Ellendale on the 15th of June to spend two weeks with relatives in New York City. It's been a real privilege to have known her, and share her background, customs, and insights.

JUNIORS Busy & Awesome!

To make money for the Prom, the Juniors sold cheese and magazines, which was quite successful. In the spring, the Juniors were busy doing research papers for Mr. Masset and preparing for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The theme of the Prom was 'Ice Castles' and the colors were light blue, dark blue, and white. The Junior class was advised by Mr. Babcock.

SOPHOMORES

Class Rings and Funds

The Sophomores got an early start in money raising by selling concessions at the Ellendale Centennial Rodeo last summer. They got a taste of what it's like to be at the Prom by serving for the banquet. Near the end of the year they ordered their class rings. Their class advisor is Mr. Johnson.

FOOTBALL

A Winning Season

This year was one of Ellendale's finest seasons. They accumulated a record of 7-2. Coach Alger was very proud of all the team work the team had. The captains thought they had a fairly good season and wished they could have reached the State playoffs.

The Homecoming game was the final test. The players worked hard, but they were defeated by a good Linton Lions team. The fans gave the team support and this helped them to have a good year.

The fans really supported the team. Come rain or shine, they were there, backing the Cards. The TBI students' support was an asset to the winning season. They brought down busloads to back up the team.

A new idea, a snake dance, was added for the Homecoming game. The fans ran single file, holding hands and cheering from the school to the field and created a lot of enthusiasm.

The whole town was very proud of the team. Mayor Vic Steinwand spoke at the Homecoming pep fest and congratulated them on their fine season.

New Features Added

In an effort to make a better yearbook, some new features were added. Besides the borders, which are being used to a greater extent, art pictures and pictures in different shapes have been added where possible. The pictures and their corresponding captions have been numbered to make them easier to identify. To include as many people in the book as possible, taking a lot of candid pictures was stressed to the staff photographers. The Editors sincerely hope that all their time and effort has resulted in a book you will be pleased with.

CARDINAL Last Issue The Largest

Due to lack of participation, the Cardinal staff was only able to put out three papers. At the end of the year, The Cardinal was made up of Senior interviews, Senior class wills, and a few short articles on some end-of-the-year events. It was the largest edition ever made.

On February 28, 1983, the final episode of M*A*S*H was aired on T.V., drawing multitudes to their T.V. screens, and causing the postponement of many activities across the country. Ten days later, the E.H.S. Drama Dept. gave a performance of the original M*A*S*H movie, which drew large numbers of M*A*S*H fans on both the 10th and 11th of March. It was a great success, and enjoyed by the cast as much as the audience.

In District Speech Contest, Lloyd Billey and Beth Gerling placed 3rd and 4th respectively, in Extemporaneous Speaking, and Paula Olson placed 4th in a Speech to Inform, and 2nd in Serious Interp, taking her to State Competition. ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL Tries New Ideas

Student Council's biggest activity of the year was setting up Homecoming. They sponsored all the week's activities and the coronation ceremonies on Thursday night. This year something new was added—a snake dance before the football game. Everybody ran down to the field, cheering on Ellendale.

Another activity was the SWAP DAY. The parents came to school in exchange for the students. This was a great success. Student Council also sponsored the Christmas Party where everybody had a good time.

Keep The Spirit Going

The Ellendale Cheerleaders showed a great spirit and enthusiasm throughout the year. They helped encourage the fans to yell and support the team to victory.

Excitement for this year's cheerleaders included cheering for homecoming and leading the snake dance the night of the homecoming game. They also cheered for state wrestling and the district tournament.

Every year the cheerleaders vote on the megaphone award for the individual who shows the most spirit, and the spirit award for the class who shows the most spirit throughout the year. The cheerleaders were advised by Mary Ulmer.

F.H.A. District Rally Hosts

The FHA had a busy and successful year. In the fall, they served for the RTC Banquet, and to liven up the spirit during homecoming, they sold "Lick 'em, Beat 'em suckers in school on the day of the game.

1983 PROM

Ice Castles

The Junior-Senior prom was held on April 30, 1983. The theme this year was Ice Castles, "Through the Eyes of Love." The Banquet was held in the Multi-purpose Room with Mr. Ulmer as guest speaker. A money saver for the junior class was having their own mothers cook the meal. For entertainment at the Banquet, a group of Junior girls sang "Through the Eyes of Love". Colors for the prom were Dark Blue, Light Blue, Pink, and White. Music was provided by a 5-man rock group, "Dexter". The prom was a success and enjoyed by everyone.

GRADUATION

A Time For Tears

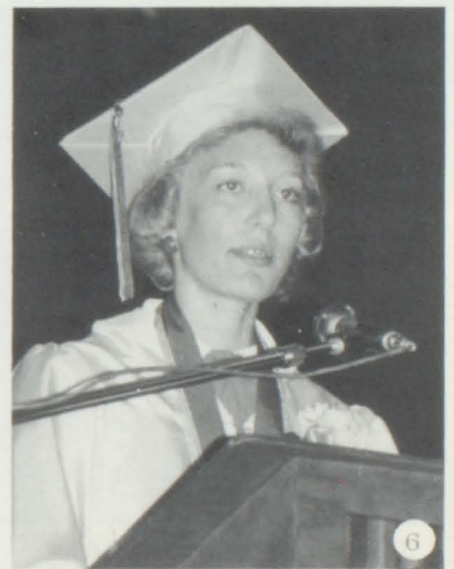

On May 26th, 1983, 34 students slowly walked down the center of the gym, some searching for their friends and relatives, others anticipating the event that was about to take place. Mixed feelings are a part of graduation; the joy of completing the many years of school, sadness in leaving good friends, and apprehension as to what the future holds.

As the ceremony progresses, many thoughts go through the minds of the graduates. The tears are impossible to hold back for some, as we realize this is the end of all our good times together. The government tests we crammed for, the games we cheered at, the hours we talked and laughed when we were supposed to study, and all the times we were late for class, are all in the past. We know we should be happy to escape what was so often referred to as a prison, but ...

As we hurry out, the tears gush, but no longer do we try to stop them. In our last moment together as a class, we threw our hats in the air and shouted in jubilation!

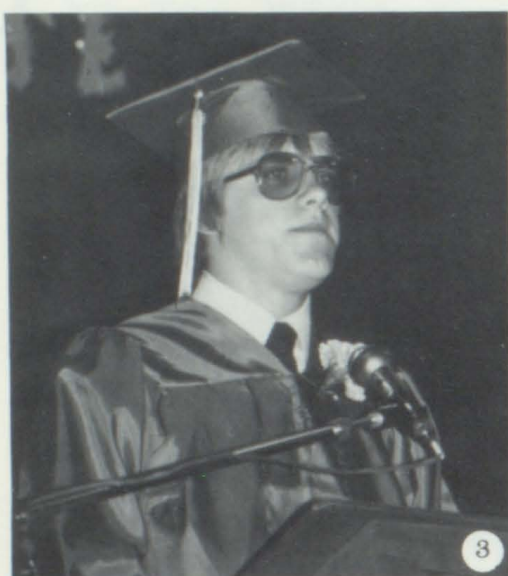

Senior class officers: Pres. - Paula Olson, V.P. - Sandra Schaller, Sec. - Kay Fuller, Treas. - Robert Haase.

1. Wanda gazes at the stage, while Adam thinks about the ceremony.
2. Chuck "About time!" Sandra "Where's Mom?"
3. Chosen by the class, Aysen reminisces of times passed.
4. Michelle, co-salutatorian, speaks on the future.
5. Kay and Paul sang a moving duet, "I Want To Live"
6. Paula Olson, valedictorian, told our teachers and parents how much we appreciate them.

1. The Senior girls sang an inspirational song titled "The World Is Yours".
2. Kay, co-salutatorian, discussed our motto.
3. Paul, representing the Student Council, said our farewells, and presented Mr. Longtin, our "foster father" with a plaque from the class.

4. Todd receives his diploma.
5. Mike gets his tassel turned.
6. "Hey Kev - we made it!"
7. Here come the tears!!
8. "YYYYAAAAHHHHHHHOOOOOO!!!!!!!"
